In this lesson, you learned how to write longer captions to give others a more complete description of your work.

1. In your first sentence, you learned you could start with the sentence from our short caption in lesson 1 or you could add adjectives.
2. In your second sentence, you learned to include who your worked helped and how it helped.
3. Finally, for the last sentence of your description, you learned to express positive feelings about your work.

Our example as you remember looked like this:

This dining table is durable and custom-designed. It helped the Boer family seat up to 20 guests for their 50th anniversary. I am delighted about this table and the results.
