These captions or descriptions showcase your work and for most of your work samples, you will write short captions. Let's review each part and then practice creating those short captions.

Review 1. We can begin in one of two ways:

Here is/this is what you are showcasing

Here are/These are what you are showcasing

What you are showcasing could be many things like “an image, a picture, a video, a project, a presentation, a paper or service.”

Practice 1. Please circle the correct answer.

1. This is/these are news reports..

2. Here is/Here are a picture of a photo.

3. This is a/this is an sample.

4. This is a/this is an class.

Review 2. For the second part of your caption, you want to use verbs. Here is a list of those verbs:

For pictures or videos

Use verbs for creating: created/produced/designed/built/developed/prepared

Verbs for researching: researched/analyzed/examined or sometimes tested

For projects:

Verbs for researching: researched/analyzed/examined or sometimes tested

Verbs for managing: managed/supervised

Verbs for working: worked on/completed

For presentations:

Verbs for presenting: gave/presented

Verbs for teaching: taught/educated/trained

For papers: you could use words for writing like wrote or published.

Practice 2. To create this part, you want to learn some of the verbs for the categories. Please circle the correct answer.

1. For pictures or videos, what verb could you use for creating?

a. produced

b. researched

c. completed

2. For pictures or videos, what verb could you use for researching?

Practice 3. You want to put the verb in an adjective clause. The adjective clause here begins with that I...

Choose the best answer for each sentence from the following list of verbs.

taught took analyzed produced

1. These are news reports that I _____. (verb for video)

2. Here is a picture of a photo that I _____. (verb for picture)

3. This is a sample that I _____. (verb for research)

4. This is a class that I _____. (verb for teaching)

Review 3. You can add your samples and captions on social media like Instagram, Twitter or YouTube. You use @ for client and #location.

Don't forget to put the client and location after your caption.

For example, a graphic designer might write: "Here are my recent logo designs that I created in 2014." @abcco (your client) #newyork (location)

Notice that with a # there are no spaces in between.

1. This is an app that I created in 2015. @abc #London

2. This is a presentation that I gave in 2014. @PekingUniversity #Beijing

3. This is a report that I wrote in 2012. @ghi #Jakarta
